"The Representative ensemble for SCA Oplenac is, by far, the best ensemble of Serbian diaspora and one of the top Serbian folklore ensembles in the world". Radojica Kuzmanovic – Director Serbian National ensemble KOLO, Belgrade.

"The Oplenac representative ensemble is considered to be the second best Serbian folklore ensemble in the world, next to the Serbian national ensemble KOLO from Belgrade".

Toronto Novosti, May 2012

A Serbian Story, performed at the Harris Theatre in 2010, was the most watched Serbian Cultural Event in Chicago history.

The show received standing ovations in 2012 for performances throughout all of the major cities in California.

Our 2013 concert in New York has been an enormous success. Everyone in the audience and on the stage experienced a night to remember. We're back with new breathtaking choreographies ready to amaze our New York audience once again.
